

Sharon Green

Sharon Green first encountered English country dancing as a total beginner at Pinewoods English Week in 1988 and has been in love with it and with English dancers ever since. A confirmed dance gypsy, she has led dances and workshops in the United States, Canada, England, and, most memorably, Japan. She particularly enjoys her frequent visits to the San Diego dance, where the dancers and her fellow callers have made her feel truly at home.